

FLIPP AGENDA

Friess Lake Involved Parents Partnerships

April 5, 2016

- Meeting called to order at 7pm by LeAnn Banwart.
- Treasurer's Report- approved $2029 disbursements since last meeting. Revenue was $3862 for March, mostly from a successful AMSAC tournament.
- Activity Updates
  - John Engstrom- Family Game Night Update- Will be held April 15 from 5:30-8:00. High school volunteers to run games, concession help sign up- popcorn, nachos, candy. Will not charge an entrance fee, but would have each family bring a food item for a local food pantry. LeAnn will do a flyer to send home this week.
  - Box Tops- LeAnn Banwart, last pickup will be in end of April for 1st and 2nd place for pizza and ice cream parties.
  - Labels for Education-Sandi Goodman rewards
  - Bilda's Nights- Pam Stater, Turnout was down for the March night. Will have one more night in May. Need to advertise more. Discussed possibility of sending out an evite as a reminder.
  - Teacher Appreciation Update-Jenny Nicpon is coordinating this. Usually includes 8th grade breakfast and lunch at Bilda's.
  - Scholarship Update- LeAnn Banwart, 8 applications were submitted, will score them and the board will vote.
- Middle School Open Gym moved to next year
- New Business
  - Need coordinators for the following positions:
Movie Night for next year, Field Day shopping and setting up snack area & working the snack area, Box Tops Coordinator for next year.

- Pam Stater idea on Tae Kwan Do lessons from Surge in Germantown Fundraiser- Exploring the idea instead of movie night. Drop off kids $10 each or $25 for family. The staff provide activities and food. School gets all profit after staff and food cost. Also looking into similar open/drop off nights for activities in the area. (LaFleurs, Play Zone, Mini Golf, Dance...)

Meeting adjourned at 7:50 pm.

Next FLIPP meeting will be May 3, 2016 @ 7:00pm in the FACE room.
